From a glass, darkly to the Perfection of God First Corinthians 13:10-13 (King James Version)

1. No one in the world past, present, or future provides for such perfection as God almighty. No one, including the Apostles, on this Earth see fully in the perfection of God. That is why the writers of the Holy Bible were led by the Spirit of God. In God's love, the writers of the Holy Bible were inerrantly led. The expression of love is the perfection of God for there is no greater matter; not faith and not hope (First Corinthians 13:13)
2. In the Eternal state, humankind will be face to face with God. In this, humankind will have a superior seeing of God as opposed to the glass, darkly currently held.
3. The upper case Greatness of God cannot be compared. For there is nothing like the upper case Greatness of God as God is the only one that can call Himself "...I AM THAT I AM..." in all capital letters (Exodus 3:14).
4. The Fourth of July message is clearly on the love of God. In the love of God is eternal freedom.

- Please note, biblical scholars use the phraseology Eternal Day meaning the state of eternity is for the last time and never ends (Henry, 2008).
